Summer/Issue 19

ArtsNorth Calendar

July 20-August 2, 2006

Arts Alliance of Northern New Hampshire

Promoting, Supporting and Sustaining Arts, Culture and Heritage in the North Country

www.aannh.org

North Country, NH - The Arts Alliance is proud to present our ArtsNorth calendar for you and your guests. Please confirm event details prior to attending. The calendar is arranged by sub-regions; The Littleton and Mt. Washington areas are further arranged into categories because of the large number of listings. For the complete ArtsNorth Calendar, with additional details, log-on to www.aannh.org.

If you wish to view events beyond the dates in this bulletin, please use the Plan Ahead Arts Calendar feature at www.aannh.org/search_listings.php

If your organization is presenting a cultural event, please email the details to us at events@aannh.org so we may include it in the ArtsNorth Calendar and, on a space-available basis, in our bi-weekly email bulletins. It's important for us to receive your events in a timely fashion. During the very busy summer season, we will be publishing 2 weeks' worth of events (instead of 3) to keep the size of the bulletin manageable.

Arts, Culture & Heritage in the White Mountains: Summer 2006 Brochure

Each summer we print a brochure that helps visitors and residents of our region find exciting performance and viewing opportunities, highlighting our members large and small. You can pick up a copy at any state rest area, from participating member organizations, Best Read Guides distribution points, or by mailing a 39-cent stamped, self-addressed envelope to our branch office, Peacefield, HC64 Box 223, Wonalancet NH 03897.

Northern New Hampshire History and Heritage: A Map & Guide

The Arts Alliance, in collaboration with partner organizations throughout our region, has produced a brochure that serves as a map and guide to historic sites throughout the North Country, from Plymouth to Pittsburg. It includes a brief history of our region, great vintage photographs, and a comprehensive listing of historical societies, museums, and heritage sites. The companion on-line guide is at www.aannh.org/heritage/

Free copies of the History and Heritage Map & Guide are available at NH Visitor Information Centers throughout the state, and will soon be available at historical societies and heritage sites. You can also get a copy by mailing a stamped, 63-cent, self-addressed envelope to our branch office, Peacefield, HC64 Box 223, Wonalancet NH 03897.
